

Multiservice Switching Forum Mission Statement

Approved 3/14/00

The MSF mission is to accelerate the deployment of open communications systems that realize economic benefits, which result from the flexible support of a full range of network services using multiple infrastructure technologies. The focus is on development of architectures and industry agreements that enable interoperability and innovation in a rapidly evolving environment.